WE HAVE A DREAM TOO!

Who has the Dream? What is the Dream?

In the summer of 1984 a group of deaf and hearing, women and men, met together to pray, to study the Bible in the context of the struggles of deaf people, and to explore the implications of liberation theologies as they shed light on the historical experience of the deaf community. Although they were from diverse Christian traditions, they were held together by a common commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to a dream . . . the eradication of the injustice and oppression that has injured the lives of deaf people.

On the final day of their meeting, at the Claggett Retreat Center in Maryland, they drafted a statement of their shared faith, hurts, and hopes. A version of that statement "The Claggett Statement" in American Sign Language was recorded on videotape by two of the deaf participants.

Since that time the statement has been seen by many deaf and hearing people. The response by deaf viewers has been strong, full of emotion . . . "Yes, that is my story." The group, calling themselves Christians for the Liberation of the Deaf Community (CLDC), has been encouraged by many local leaders of deaf ministries to provide an opportunity for more individuals to come together to discuss some of the issues raised by the Claggett Statement and other topics related to deaf people in the church.

The opportunity is now! Members of the National Council of Churches Task Force on the Hearing Impaired are sponsoring this ecumenical forum for deaf and hearing people interested in exploring "the dream" together.

Together, participants will pray, study the Bible as it touches the struggles of oppressed people and see how the Good News of Jesus can bring freedom to Deaf People. (Note: The purpose of this forum is not to teach or study sign language.)

Participation is open to all individuals interested in deaf people and the church.

NOTE, due to the nature of this forum:

- The number of participants is limited to 50.
- Twenty-five or more of these 50 will be deaf people.
- Participants will generally be chosen on a "first come first served" basis. (We hope to include people from many different geographic regions and denominational backgrounds.)
- All participants will be expected to stay for the entire forum.
